

Large Flowered Gauras

Large Flowered Ga-u'-ras are gangly and tall,
And keep forming blossoms from spring until fall.
Their calyx is pink and their petals are white,
But start turning pinkish before their first night.

Their off-centered blossoms have petals on top;
Their functional parts hanging down like a mop.
Their unusual shape leaves them standing alone,
With lop-sided beauty uniquely their own.

Bud Morris
12/18/09
www.BudMorris.net